

Please join Rocky Lafleur, Genevieve Morrill and Carol Poet for a reception and celebration of LibraryPark

- Learn about the benefits that LibraryPark will offer to the design community – including the special Art & Design reference collection with nearly 1,000 volumes that will be an excellent resource for research, inspiration and education
- Join in conversation with LibraryPark architects Steve Johnson and Jim Favaro of MDA Johnson Favaro, who will highlight the ways that LibraryPark's design embraces our community
- Find out how you can be part of building LibraryPark

Thursday, May 6, 5:30–7:30 pm, at Brueton, 8521 Melrose Avenue, West Hollywood

Please RSVP by Monday, May 3 to info@weholibraryfund.org or 323-469-1871. Parking is available at 8500 Melrose Avenue (the black and white striped building on the southwest corner of Melrose and La Cienega). Enter off of La Cienega or West Knoll.

Can't make it to the event? Come and see the LibraryPark architectural model on display at Brueton Thursday, May 6–Saturday, May 8, 10 am–6 pm. Or visit www.weholibraryfund.org to learn more.

Special thanks to Tom Hammond at Brueton for his support and for providing a beautiful setting for this event.

Join us in this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to be a part of West Hollywood's new civic landmark – a place like no other
